TEXAS, NOT KANSAS — Cameron, as well, has sunflowers, the kind being tested in Robertson County. These beauties grow in the yard of Eugene Salach of 703 E. Eighth St. Research is underway by U.S. Dept. of Agriculture on flowers grown by Hearne farmer John Nigliazzo. Sunflower oil and meal promise advantages over cottonseed and soybean products. Farmers in North Dakota and Minnesota annually plant up to 80,000 acres of sunflowers. Rust is a major problem. Kansas, of course, claims as its state flower the Sunflower, which may boost a sagging Cen-Tex crop outlook.

SPEAKER FOR A DAY ....

60th Session Tough, Able

A Staff Report

The session of the 60th Legislature that ended last week may have been one of the roughest in recent years, but it nevertheless had a number of accomplishments to its credit.

That is the way Rep. Milton Schiller appraised the session on his return home to Cameron after House Speaker Ben Barnes gaveled adjournment at 11:49 p.m. May 29.

Among major accomplishments, he listed a teacher's pay raise totaling $51 million, and the redistricting of the entire House of Representatives and Congressional districts to comply with an order of the U.S. Supreme Court.

"There are some predictions that the courts will redistrict the state again as they will not approve our measure," Rep. Schiller said. "But I doubt that they will, as it will be mandatory to redistrict in 1971 after the 1970 census."

DISTRICT INTACT

"And I am happy to report that the 27th District which I represent was left alone. It still is made up of Falls, Milam and Robertson Counties as before. With Marlin, Hearne, Cameron and Rockdale its largest cities, it is one of the few all-rural districts remaining in the state. Its common interest in agriculture and livestock make it easy to represent down in Austin, Rep. Schiller said.

Concerning the teachers pay raise, Rep. Schiller said he was pleased the bill passed just before the end of the session. The $51 million package includes a $48 million pay boost; the remaining $3 million goes into the teacher retirement fund.

"This will raise teachers' salaries an average of $554 a year," he pointed out. "We must have the money to get the teachers needed in Texas today and I think this is a good start."

He also favored the raise given state employees bringing their salaries nearer to par with wages paid by private industry.

On the minus side, the Legislature passed an appropriation bill for only one year when efforts to write an appropriation bill for the usual two-year period bogged down.

This will make it necessary for Governor Connally to call a second session to deal with the budget for next year. Speculation is that the session will be held either this fall or next spring after the primaries.

Schiller said he doesn't agree with the idea of some observers that taxes will have to be raised at that time.

HOPE TO AVOID TAXES

"I'm hopeful no new taxes will be needed. If the sales tax continues to bring in increasing revenue as it appears it will, a tax raise ought not to be necessary."

Rep. Schiller saw two bills he authored -- one the reflective license plate bill, the other regulating the sale and use of herbicides -- pass the House and Senate and sent to the Governor for his signature.

However, his bill to set the filing fees of candidates for State Representative wasn't so fortunate. Although it passed the House with votes to spare, it was bottled up in the Senate, which refused to bring it up for a vote. Intended to assess the fees for representatives on a par with those paid for other offices, it set them at $480 whereas they now range from $5 to $500. The Milam County Democratic Convention had passed a resolution last year requesting that the bill be introduced.

The probable highlight of the session for Rep. Schiller was May 10 when he presided over the House of Representatives as acting Speaker

SPEAKER FOR DAY

"Speaker Ben Barnes asked me Tuesday afternoon, the 9th, if I would like to take over in his place the next day as he would have to be away from his office," he explained. "Of course I was glad for the chance."

It was Senate bill day -- that is, bills that had already passed the Senate were being considered by the House. Twelve of them were brought up for a vote during the day. Some passed, some were defeated.

"It was a real honor, and I appreciate Speaker Barnes asking me to take over at the podium for the day," Rep. Schiller said.

INDIANS WORK ON ELIMINATION OF 'CLICK-CLACK'

A crew of more than 100 men including a Navajo Indian chief and about 75 Navajos are laying new rail on a 50-mile stretch of Santa Fe track from Cameron to Somerville.

F. L. Reese, district engineer for Santa Fe, said the $150,000-plus project would be completed in about 50 days.

New rail is being placed and welded in continuous pieces, in most cases from town to town, to eliminate the bumping or "clickity clack" at rail joints. L. E. Rundell, Santa Fe division engineer, said 119 pound rail was replacing the 112 pound old railing.

1440-FOOT LENGTHS

He said the steel rails were welded in 1440-foot lengths at Temple and brought to Cameron by train. The lengths are welded again on the ground to form the continuous rail.

Reese said the majority of the crew working on the Cameron project were Navajo Indians who have been laying new track from California east.

LIVE ON RESERVATION

The Indians live on a reservation in Arizona and work on a six week schedule, returning to their homes in Arizona for the seventh week. While working in Cameron, they are living in Santa Fe cars and meals are provided by the Central Commissary Company.

Assistant foreman for the crew is Kenneth Eriacho, a Navajo Indian chief.

Rundell said the project would not interfere with the regular Santa Fe schedule.

BOARD EQUIPS YHS LIBRARY, TABLES BIDS

The Cameron Independent School Board will meet in regularly scheduled session 7:30 p.m. Thursday after a called meeting last Thursday.

The Board, chaired by Coleman Duncum, authorized the purchase of $2,100 in new library tables and chairs for Yoe High School. Book shelving will probably be built in, Supt. D. R. Dodson said.

Tabled were four bids for refinishing the exterior of Yoe High School, the low bid $9,387 from Allied Restoration Co., Dallas, and the high bid $14,427 by Wester Water Proofing, also of Dallas.

Supt. Dodson said new discussion will follow in the proposal to sand, seal and generally renovate the exterior of the 46-year-old building.

The Board is also inquiring into the cost of a 50 by 80-foot band hall of metal construction. Discussion arose when efforts began to air-condition the second-floor band hall on the east side of Yoe Gymnasium.

In the called meeting, routine bills were paid and resignations of two teachers accepted.

450-lb. Bear Walks East Milam Trails

Reports of a black bear wandering in Burleson County were substantiated last week when a plaster of paris cast of tracks were identified as those of an American Black Bear. A bear (or bears) have also been reported seen in Falls County and near the Brazos River in Milam County.

The bear tracks were found in the W. C. Bracewell corn field about three miles west of Lyons, Burleson County. Texas Parks & Wildlife Department at Texas A&M University said the tracks indicated the bear weighed up to 450 pounds. They theorized that it had migrated from east Texas or the Gulf Coast.

Delbert Davis, Milam County game warden, said a Waco man fishing on the Brazos River in Milam County had reported seeing a bear. Davis said he had found tracks that appeared to have been made by a bear, but that numerous searches in the area had turned up no further clues. He said there had also been two reports of a bear seen in Falls County during the past month.

Davis said the American Black Bear feeds primarily on herbs, vegetables, fruit, etc. and is known to graze like a cow. He said it will also eat fish and small animals such as rats and rabbits. Davis said the bear is not considered dangerous to the general public, but would be if frightened or cornered.

Council Approves 40% Tax Base, Hears Ordinances

The City Council Tuesday night heard second readings on street paving and airport zoning ordinances and approved an Equalization Board report recommending raising city tax evaluations from 33 and one-third to 40 percent of actual value.

Reading of the street paving ordinance cleared the way for undertaking the 100-block city paving program and reading of the airport zoning ordinance was to control building of any tall structures within flight patterns of the new Cameron Airpark.

The Equalization Board has not made its final report.

Routine reports also showed three new water connections, one sewer connection completion of the Airpark administration building, general cleanup of Wilson-Ledbetter Park and curb-gutter on one block of Bowie Avenue.

Economy Chevrolet Offers Modern Sales, Service

Chevrolet offers new car warranties for five years or 50,000 miles, just one advantage of the up-to-date car center.

It requires trained technicians, which Economy Chevrolet at 4th and Fannin has, to cure the ills of complicated engines, transmissions and air conditioning systems.

And it requires a trained sales force to sell new and used cars and trucks in the modern day. Though Chevrolets, by far, outsell any other car in the world, trained sales people are the only ones who really know the options available and values of trade-ins.

Harry Shanks, president of Economy Chevrolet, notes his firm has added, in the year since it began operation here, the most modern front-end equipment, the most modern tools for engine and transmission work. And he says it is, by far, the most modern and progressive dealership in the area.

Economy Chevrolet is prepared for the long pull. Every new piece of equipment will take years to pay for itself. Front-end equipment alone will take 10 years before showing a profit.

But Chevrolet will likely always be the best selling car and the firm has faith in Cameron's growth, Shanks says.

Economy Chevrolet's business improved and sales increased in 1966 and 1967, the period that nation-wide sales have dropped on all auto makes.

"We are proud of our product and proud of our dealership which will follow planned expansion as Cameron expands," Shanks emphasizes.

"We pride ourselves as being the most competitive dealer in Central Texas, as many people here have discovered. The day of having to buy out of Cameron is gone, now and for years to come," he says.

Through an up-to-date minute operation, Economy Chevrolet is not short on experience. Personnel have an aggregate of 94 years experience in the automotive business.

Shanks has 12 years in the automobile sales and management experience; Bob Terry four years and Mac McCasland three years in sales; Nathan Lewis 28 years in parts and service; Mrs. Dorcas Smith six years as office manager; Eleno Alvarado mechanic 15 years; Walter Odstrcil mechanic seven years; Leo J. Rozner mechanic two years; Zelda Springer parts counter seven years; and Robert M. Wilson lubrication 10 years.

"We're modern and experienced," Shanks points out, "and we invite you to shop all over Texas if you like, but make Economy Chevrolet your last stop."

A Metro Classification . . . .

Bell County neighbor Temple is going after a federal metropolitan classification, hoping to be established by 1970.

This is important news for neighboring counties like Milam.

Such a classification "would probably increase the population by 25 per cent over night" a Temple Chamber leader was quoted by The Temple Telegram.

Waco and McLennan County already have such a designation, granted by Bureau of the Budget when certain population and income factors are met.

The idea is that projected growth along Interstate 35 from San Antonio to Dallas-Fort Worth will see two million people living along a two-mile strip on either side of that super highway. And Temple, like Cameron and other communities in this area, are within 150 miles of four million metropolitan population in Texas alone.

What would this mean for Milam County? One guess is that the spill-over would increase growth pattern emerging in "Matchless Milam".

Alcoa has just announced plans for construction of a seventh potline and hiring of 120 men to man it. That is 15 miles south.

Bryan to our east 50 miles is fast becoming a small metro complex, built around a modernizing A&M University.

A Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan complex has been designated in North Texas which encompasses four counties, not just the two containing those cities.

The Texas megapolis is forming, then, in North Texas, in the Houston - Gulf Coast to the Southeast. Cameron's position in relation to these two centers is also in the center. Cameron Industrial Foundation's sign, erected in January, says: "Cameron, in the Center of Texas Metropolitan Markets."

Waco's approval of a $23-million bond issue, Bell County's approval of a $1-million bond issue (clearing approval for about $15 million for the major Bell County Killeen-Belton highway) and continued forward planning in other smaller Cen-Tex towns add up to a composite industrial-distribution-agri-business megapolis of some proportion.

Temple's ambition for a metropolitan classification, with all its aid and growth advantages, will certainly affect the future of Milam County.

Beyond The UN . . . .

Deep hatred has erupted into bitter war between Middle East Arabs and Israel's Jews.

It is a renewal of the 1948 Israeli war with several differences. The United Nations has been unable to head the war off, the Arab nations are united under Nasser and Israel is bent on an expansionist defense.

We recall that Ralph Bunche won the Nobel Peace Prize for his part in settling boundary disputes. A strong Jewish leader with a mane of hair, Ben Gurion steered the Jews to independence in those days.

Ben Gurion is gone and Nasser has risen. Egypt's economy is hurting and the old device of attacking a common enemy is being invoked. And in the balance, Nasser has, for the moment, brought differing Arab nations into unison.

Russia and the United States say hands off. But the oil reserves at stake out of Jordan may soon change the play. Half of our oil reserves for fighting the Vietnam War comes from this part of the world. And the USSR knows this. The Viet Cong would have fewer adversaries if our aircraft and helicopters were less active.

President Johnson has taken a neutral position while Russia clearly sides with Nasser. Many who find our involvement in Vietnam unnecessary would have a different view about the Middle East.

It is up to the U.S. and Russia. The UN this time couldn't handle it.

ALERT FOR SCREWWORMS

As of May 13, 28 confirmed screwworm cases have been reported in Texas. Six cases were confirmed between April 30 and May 13, according to officials at the Screwworm Eradication Laboratory at Mission. A total of just over a quarter billion sterile flies were air-dropped during the same period. The officials continue to urge stockmen to be on the alert and to submit samples of any worms found in animal wounds to the Mission laboratory for identification.

WEATHER TO BLAME

Discolored leaf conditions in young cotton in widespread sections of Texas are the result of the unusually cool nights combined with higher daytime temperatures that have persisted over the past several weeks.

Six Constitution Changes Studied

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN

Six proposed changes in the Texas Constitution were approved by the 60th Legislature for submission to the voters this fall -- November 11.

These proposals are as follows:

SJR 6 authorizing counties to pay medical, doctor and hospital bills of county law enforcement officers injured in line of duty.

HJR 12 providing for a $74,000,000 parks development fund bond issue.

HJR 17 reviving the Veterans' Land Program and authorizing a total of $400,000,000 in bonds.

HJR 3 allowing counties to put tax money in one general fund.

HJR 27 permitting state officers and employees to hold other non-elective positions under the state or U.S. governments where there is no conflict of interests and where the state might actually benefit.

HJR 37 allowing cities and other units within hospital districts to levy taxes for participation in mental health and mental retardation community centers.

Fourteen additional amendments were approved by the Legislature for voters' consideration on November 5, 1968. These include the following:

SJR 14 giving the legislature power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds to build industrial plants for operation by private concerns.

SJR 3 revising provisions for investment of the state employees retirement system and changing provisions for its administration.

SJR 4 providing for contributions to teacher retirement system on the basis of full salary of members (contributions now are limited to $504 a year).

SJR 24 permitting the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxes equipment used in air or water pollution control.

SJR 32 abolishing the state property tax by 1976.

SJR 37 allowing Dallas County to issue road bonds on vote of a majority of property taxpayers.

SJR 41 raising state welfare spending ceiling from $60,000,000 to $75,000,000 a year.

HJR 20 altering investment procedures for University of Texas permanent fund.

HJR 22 specifying that legislators will not be ineligible for other offices because their terms extend a few days into January.

HJR 49 eliminating the requirement that the governor, secretary of state and comptroller approve contracts for printing and paper.

HJR 50 authorizing the legislature to provide for refund of tax on cigars and tobacco products sold at retail in Texarkana.

HJR 61 raising legislators' salaries from $4,800 to $8,400 a year and extending per diem expense allowance from 120 to 140 days of the regular session.

SPECIAL SESSION? - Legislators knew their job was little more than half finished when they adjourned at midnight May 29.

Governor John Connally cheerfully reminded them that he would "see them in the fall or next year", meaning that that is when the 1969 budget and a balancing tax bill must be written.

Later, Connally told reporters that it is highly unlikely he will call the special finance session before next year. He hinted that next year's tax bill may be less than the predicted $150,000,000 to $200,000,000 and he does not intend to recommend an increase in the general sales tax rate.

COURTS SPEAK - State Supreme Court reversed a 43-year-old rule requiring a property owner to warn employees of a sub-contractor of hidden dangers on the property. Case involved a Nueces County welder injured in an accident. Court said injured worker's own employer and foreman should have warned him of threats to his safety.

In another case, the Supreme Court upheld a decision of the Dallas Court of Civil Appeals that questions of usury and unreasonable collection methods should be considered together. Case dealt with a $42-a-week yardman's suit against Pacific Finance Loans and Bond Finance Company.

Ward County District Court judgement that salinity content of water furnished by a water district caused $16,344 worth of damage to a milo maize crop also was sustained by the higher Court.

FUNDS FOR AGING PROGRAM A $140,774 program to develop community programs of direct service to the aged in Lubbock, Big Spring, Fort Worth, Mercedes and San Antonio have been approved by the Governor's Committee on Aging.

AIRPORT FUNDS AVAILABLE Legislature appropriated $475,000 for building and improving small town airports. Big Bend National Park will get $150,000 plus federal aid for new airport Lake Whitney State Park, $40,000, and $25,000 will go to aviation research at a higher education institution.

Lee F. Hollas Earns UH Science Degree

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editar:

I was sitting out here on this Johnson grass farm trying as a public service to think up some new sources of tax revenue which wouldn't affect me -- as I understand it, there's nothing this country or any part of it, state, city or school district, can't do if it could only get more money, which fits my situation too, although I can't help mentioning that while politicians are always hunting for new tax revenue, you don't see much thought given to new methods of enabling a taxpayer to raise the money for the taxes he's already paying -- at any rate, to get on with this, I pulled out a copy of The Houston Post I'd been saving to rest my mind on and the first article I noticed was talking about taxes.

According to it, a lot of states are demanding that Washington return to them a part of the income taxes they pay.

Under the proposal, Washington would return say 5 or 10 percent of all the Federal income taxes a state's citizens pay, and the state could use it as it sees fit, maybe to raise school teachers' salaries or policemen's salaries or, failing that, at least to enlarge the penitentiary.

I got to thinking about this and I'm afraid it has some hitches. In the first place, since Washington isn't making ends meet as it is, the same as me, if it handed back 10 percent of its revenue to the states, wouldn't Congress then just add 10 percent more on its take?

Furthermore, if a state got back 10 percent, wouldn't every county and city in that state start demanding a refund on the taxes they pay to the state?

In turn, wouldn't the state, which is having about as much trouble as me and Washington in making ends meet, then have to add 10 percent more on the taxes it's collecting?

Thus the net result would be a 10 percent increase in taxes, all up and down the line, which wasn't the aim at all.

Instead of handing refunds back down the line, from Washington to the smallest town and taxing district, has anybody ever thought of just letting us keep the money in the first place?

Yours faithfuly,
J. A.

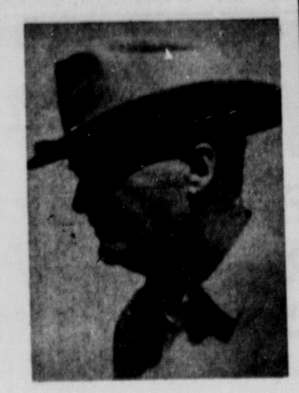
COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

—By—

J. D. MOORE



Reports from farmers and fields checked in several communities indicate no increase in sorghum midge numbers this past week. However, grain farmers should check their grain fields daily for the next two weeks for the midge. John Thomas, Extension entomologist, expects the migration of midge to occur from June 15 to 20.

The county agent's office received a modified certified certificate this week from Dr. S. B. Walkers, D.V.M., Executive Director of the Texas Animal Health Commission in Austin declaring Milam County a modified certified Brucellosis area. This is an accomplishment for the livestock producers of the county.

The infection rate on the initial test was only 1.56 percent of the total cattle with 1,966 herds and 53,857 animals being tested. The modified certified rating requires that Brucellosis has been reduced to not more than one percent of the cattle and is not to exceed 5 percent of the herds as indicated by official testing and other approved procedures conducted under the cooperative State-Federal program.

A shortcourse for commercial greenhouse vegetable growers has been announced for June 26 and 27 at Texas A&M University. The meeting will start at 8 a.m. June 26, in the Ballroom of the Memorial Student Center. A complete program of subjects to be discussed is available at the county agent's office. Registration fee for the shortcourse is $15. Husband and wife or family, partnership, or corporation will pay only one registration fee.

At the onset of summer, many of our home lawns show a shortage of nitrogen as indicated by a "fading out" or "yellowing" of the grass. The county agent fed his grass on May 31 using 150 pounds of ammonium sulphate and 50 pounds of copperas. This gave a 3 to 1 mix and the material was broadcast by hand. The 200 pounds of mixture was used on approximately 7,051 square feet or 3½ pounds per 1,000 square feet of yard area. The sulphate form of nitrogen was used because of its chemical structure. Sulphate forms of nitrogen work well on soils with a high PH rating.

But, now, farmers are beginning to realize substantial profits, thanks to new research and development techniques promoted by area agricultural organizations, including the Agricultural Development Division of TP&L.

In the southeastern and southwestern portions of the TP&L service area, a record $20.2 million were derived from peanut production in 1966. This was more than a $7.2 million gain over 1965.

The peanut is coming back into favor with the farmer. It has been a favorite at the ballpark and in the home for a long time.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

—By—

J. D. MOORE

Reports from farmers and fields checked in several communities indicate no increase in sorghum midge numbers this past week. However, grain farmers should check their grain fields daily for the next two weeks for the midge. John Thomas, Extension entomologist, expects the migration of midge to occur from June 15 to 20.

The county agent's office received a modified certified certificate this week from Dr. S. B. Walkers, D.V.M., Executive Director of the Texas Animal Health Commission in Austin declaring Milam County a modified certified Brucellosis area. This is an accomplishment for the livestock producers of the county.

The infection rate on the initial test was only 1.56 percent of the total cattle with 1,966 herds and 53,857 animals being tested. The modified certified rating requires that Brucellosis has been reduced to not more than one percent of the cattle and is not to exceed 5 percent of the herds as indicated by official testing and other approved procedures conducted under the cooperative State-Federal program.

A shortcourse for commercial greenhouse vegetable growers has been announced for June 26 and 27 at Texas A&M University. The meeting will start at 8 a.m. June 26, in the Ballroom of the Memorial Student Center. A complete program of subjects to be discussed is available at the county agent's office. Registration fee for the shortcourse is $15. Husband and wife or family, partnership, or corporation will pay only one registration fee.

At the onset of summer, many of our home lawns show a shortage of nitrogen as indicated by a "fading out" or "yellowing" of the grass. The county agent fed his grass on May 31 using 150 pounds of ammonium sulphate and 50 pounds of copperas. This gave a 3 to 1 mix and the material was broadcast by hand. The 200 pounds of mixture was used on approximately 7,051 square feet or 3½ pounds per 1,000 square feet of yard area. The sulphate form of nitrogen was used because of its chemical structure. Sulphate forms of nitrogen work well on soils with a high PH rating.

Nitrogen compounds comprise from 40 to 50 percent of the dry matter of protoplasm, the living substance of plant cells. For this reason nitrogen is required in relatively large quantities in connection with all plant growth process in plants. It follows directly from this that without an adequate supply of nitrogen appreciable growth cannot take place and that plants must remain stunted and relatively undeveloped when nitrogen is deficient.

Readily available nitrogen is necessary for an adequate supply of chlorophyll, the green coloring in plants. Then too, a supply of nitrogen is necessary for the acid in decomposing turf build-up, the cause of some of our lawn disorders.

Peanuts aren't "peanuts" anymore

But, now, farmers are beginning to realize substantial profits, thanks to new research and development techniques promoted by area agricultural organizations, including the Agricultural Development Division of TP&L.

In the southeastern and southwestern portions of the TP&L service area, a record $20.2 million were derived from peanut production in 1966. This was more than a $7.2 million gain over 1965.

The peanut is coming back into favor with the farmer. It has been a favorite at the ballpark and in the home for a long time.

C'MON PLAY BALL

Larry is in seventh heaven. He got his baseball suit yesterday, and is finally a full-fledged member of the neighborhood team.

He is the youngest one in the lot, and certainly the smallest. But he packs a great deal of leadership ability in that half-pint frame. We had not lived in our neighborhood one month, before he was bat boy and unofficial mascot. In just a few short weeks, morale improved. Two of the boys nicknamed, "Loudmouth" and "Fatso" became "Speed" and "Lefty." The boys began to cooperate and play better as a team. They moved steadily upward in the league.

You can imagine what this did to our spirits. How proud we were, and yet humble too, for we knew we could not take complete credit for his sense of fair play. You see, he has been brought up in the Church as well as in our home. It's a wonderful feeling to realize that in such a few short years our son has shown the influence of Christian training.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

Every once in awhile some biologist says there is no reason for a closed season on bass. Well, "Mr. B". Texas biologists reached that decision a long time ago. In fact Texas hasn't had a closed season on bass in so many years that very few anglers remember it.

There was a time, however, when the season was closed . . . during March and April . . . . to protect bass during the spawning period.

Perhaps it may have been justified then, because bass weren't too plentiful. In fact there are many waters in Texas today, where bass fishing is tops, that didn't have any bass in those days.

The black bass isn't a native of West Texas. It has only been in comparatively recent years that bass were found west of San Antonio.

Main reason was the lack of constant water. Texas streams were dry many months of the year and not conducive to bass habitation.

Then came the dams, with fresh water reservoirs. Bass were plant-

Then came the dams, with fresh water reservoirs. Bass were planted—and hatched—and hatched. Only at the start did they need protection. Then production boomed.

Texas biologists have been saying for a long time that it is practically impossible to fish out a bass pond. Research now has proved this to be true.

A recent survey shows that 10 percent of the fishermen catch 80 percent of the fish. In other words 90 percent of the anglers catch only 20 percent of the fish. That doesn't present much argument in favor of creel limits.

Dr. George W. Bennett, chief of the aquatic biology section of the Illinois Natural History Survey, recently completed a 22 year study of black bass. He says, "every fishery biologist knows the closed season business is a lot of baloney."

He also presents a few fishing tips.

For instance, he says one good way to catch bass is to beat the water with a board, making a lot of noise. Disturb the bass? He says it makes them curious!

Then after your noise-making, present them with the lure of your choice. If it is the lure of their choice, they'll hit.

This is one part of the argument you can always hear among fishermen. Most of us were taught while we were young to be quiet with our fishing. Sometimes fishermen would sit for hours, dangling a worm or minnow in the water, and never say a word.

Then along came the idea of skittering. A fisherman would use a large top water plug, a long cane pole and a short line. He'd beat the water at the edge of lily pads, or near dead trees, then let the plug rest on the water briefly. This method frequently catches big bass. But it's not used often.

One fisherman we know, and he's a good one, will speed his motor along the edge of a moss bed, making all the fuss possible. This churns the water, increases the oxygen content and stirs up food. Big bass, hiding back under the moss beds, rush out!

Meanwhile, the angler backs off and begins casting. This angler says he can get one or more bass out of every moss bed in that manner.

He and other fishing buddies frequently buzz one another when fishing gets slow. They'll fish the same area, not far from each other. Sunddenly one of them will crank up and make two or three fast circles about 30 feet out from the other's boat.

NOTICE—

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed proposals addressed to the City Council of the City of Cameron will be received at the office of the City Secretary, City Hall, Cameron, Texas, until 5:00 o'clock P M. on the 6th day of July, 1967, and then publicly opened, read and considered by the City Council of said City, for the furnishing of all necessary materials, machinery, equipment, labor, superintendence, and all other services and things required for the construction of certain street improvements in the City of Cameron.

The proposed work is divided into two sections. Section "A" covers curbs and gutters and paving to be done under the assessment program. Section "B" covers drainage structures and other miscellaneous work that must be done to complete the project but which is not an integral part of the work to be done under the assessment program. Bidders must submit a bid on both sections. Since Section "A" and Section "B" must be awarded to the same contractor, the low bid will be determined by comparing the total bids on both sections.

Under Section "A" - Assessment Program, bids will be received on two different types of paving, the Alternate I bid being for 1½" hot mix asphaltic concrete surfacing, and Alternate II bid being for 1½" cold mix limestone rock asphalt surfacing.

The City reserves the right to award the contract on the basis most advantageous to the City, to reject any and-or all bids, to waive objections based on failure to comply with formalities, and to allow the correction of obvious or patent errors.

Bidders must submit a satisfactory cashier's or certified check, or a bidder's bond, payable without recourse to the order of BASSEL WILSON, MAYOR, in an amount not less than five (5 percent) per cent of the total bid at the prices shown by the bidders on the estimated quantities upon which the bid is based, which check or bond shall be submitted as a guaranty that the bidder will enter into a contract and execute a performance bond within fifteen (15) days after notice of award of contract to him. Bids without the required check or bond will not be considered.

The successful bidder must furnish a satisfactory performance bond in the amount of 100 percent of the total contract price, and a satisfactory payment bond in such amount, both duly executed by such bidder as principal and by a corporate surety duly authorized so to act under the laws of the State of Texas as surety.

All lump sum and unit prices must be stated in both script and figures.

Bidders are expected to inspect the site of the work and to inform themselves regarding all local conditions.

Wages paid on this program must be not less than the general prevailing rates of wages. A detailed wage scale is included in the Specifications.

Instructors to Bidders, proposal forms, specifications, plans and other contractual documents may be obtained from the office of the City Secretary in Cameron, Texas.
